DECISION¹

GOLKIEWICZ, Special Master.

The parties filed a Joint Stipulation of Fact Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs (Stipulation) on July 25, 2011. The parties' Stipulation indicated Petitioners submitted a draft Application for Attorney's Fees and Costs (Draft Application) to Respondent on or about May 31, 2011. The parties' Stipulation further indicated Respondent's counsel had reviewed petitioners' Draft Application and had certain objections to Petitioners' request for fees and costs. Petitioners' counsel agreed to reduce his request to a total of $6,495.00 in attorneys' fees and costs. In accordance with General Order #9, a statement from petitioners indicating that they had incurred $0.00 in costs was attached to the Stipulation. Respondent's counsel indicated she had no objection to petitioners' reduced request for attorneys' fees and other litigation costs.

After reviewing the request, the court awards $6,495.00 in attorneys' fees and other litigation costs, which shall be made payable jointly to petitioners and petitioners' attorney, Michael G. McLaren. The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter. The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.²
