DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 17, 2013, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner asserts that he advanced no reimbursable costs in pursuit of his petition.

Petitioner submitted his request for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain aspects of petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner amends his application for attorneys' fees and costs to $34,176.34. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $34,176.34, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Black McLaren Jones Ryland & Griffiee in the amount of $34,176.34.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
