No. 09-101V
Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: March 3, 2011

Attorneys' fees and costs; award in the amount to which respondent does not object

UNPUBLISHED DECISION<sup>1</sup>

Elizabeth M. Muldowney, Esq., Rawls & McNelis, P.C., Richmond, VA, for Petitioner;
Lara A. Englund, Esq., U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

Petitioner Carlis Dewese filed his initial application for attorneys' fees and costs on March 1, 2011. The Court awards the amount to which respondent has not objected.

Mr. Dewese claimed that the influenza vaccine caused an adverse reaction. A stipulation for compensation is expected in this case, based on the parties' request for a 15-week order (issued December 14, 2010). Because Mr. Dewese is expected to receive compensation, he is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. §300aa-15(e).

<sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the special master's action in this case, the special master intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims's website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002).

All decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, the person submitting the information has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document's disclosure. If the special master agrees that the identified material fits within the categories listed above, the special master shall redact such material from public access. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B); Vaccine Rule 18(b).

Mr. Dewese seeks $26,500.00 in attorneys' fees and costs for petitioner's counsel. Additionally, Mr. Dewese filed a statement of costs in compliance with General Order No. 9, stating that he incurred $500.00 while pursuing this claim. Respondent stated that she had no objection to this application for attorneys' fees and costs.

After reviewing the request, the court awards the following:

1. A lump sum of $26,500.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioners' attorney, Elizabeth M. Muldowney, of the law firm Rawls & McNelis, P.C., and petitioner, Carlis Dewese, for attorney's fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).
2. A lump sum of $500.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Carlis Dewese.

The court thanks the parties for their cooperative efforts in resolving this matter.

The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.<sup>2</sup>
